Iron Horse Neighborhood Newsletter

February 2013

Hi. If you have this newsletter than you are probably part of the Iron Horse neighborhood. Iron Horse is bordered on the east and west by Euclid and 4th Avenue and on the North and South by Broadway and 8th Street.

The Iron Horse Neighborhood Association is a group of Iron Horse residents and business owners that meet monthly to discuss concerns and programs for the neighborhood. The association helped plan and build the park, restore sidewalks, put in historic lighting and planned and built the community garden. Recent programs have included the Lights on 9th program to subsidize decorative lighting for 9th street businesses and the Itty Bitty Kitty Committee which assists neighbors to have feral cats spayed or neutered at no charge. The Iron Horse neighborhood association has also awarded over $5,000 in grants to neighborhood property owners for repairs and improvements and plan to offer another round of grants soon. The neighborhood association also throws an annual 4th of July party at the Iron Horse park.

There is no cost to belong to the association. All neighborhood funds are raised through our street fair booth staffed by volunteers. We've been able to do great things because of all the amazing effort and input of the residents and business owners. The neighborhood will be facing a lot of changes in the next 12 months with the addition of the modern streetcar and the building of The Junction at Iron Horse. If you haven't been to one of our meetings, we'd love to meet you. Now is a great time to get involved in making our neighborhood better. We hold meetings the third Thursday of every month at the Fluxx studio space at 414 E. 9th Street. We even provide free pizza at the meetings. Hope to see you there.

The IHNA council is made up of 7 volunteer members.

Our current council chair is Drew Burk,

We will be holding council elections on February 21st at our next meeting. Any neighborhood resident , Or business owner, is welcome to run for a council position. we encourage all residents to consider running for a seat on the council
