Historical Notes:

November 16, 1998 - Mayor and Council passed and adopted a motion to create an advisory citizens oversight committee. The committee is to advise the Mayor and Council regarding issues such as: expenditures of surcharge monies; prioritizing those monies for repairs of the facility, etc.; and, to assist the Mayor and Council with a proposed bond package. The committee is to be comprised of 15 members with the Mayor and Council each having two appointments and one member appointed at large. The motion was amended requesting that the committee review the use of the facility by motor sports promoters, review the terms for the operations of the concessions, and consider deleting the at-large appointment and replace it with one appointment by the City Manager.

December 14, 1998 - Mayor and Council formally approved the structure for a citizens' committee to advise and oversee the Tucson Rodeo Grounds and the Rodeo Parade on behalf of the City, and naming the group the Tucson Rodeo Grounds/Parade Citizens' Oversight Committee.
