Dear Neighbors,

Meeting Place: Our next neighborhood association meeting is scheduled for April 23rd at the Congregation Chaverim meeting room. Our thanks go to the congregation for allowing us a neighborhood location for our meeting.

Attendance at our last meeting: Officers Fred and Deborah Thompson, Zach MacDonald, Stephanie Bourn and 9 neighbors. Special guest: Nina Trasoff.

Future Neighborhood Projects:

Volunteers for Graffiti abatement team: come hear about our president Fred's success with a few basic cleaning materials on small scale graffiti. We can also acquire paint for large scale projects such as the wall alongside Fuddrucker's. Other ideas?

Items from City Emails to THWDE:

Got grapefruit? Tucson Community Food Bank harvests surplus fruit from Tucson area backyards as a supplement to emergency food boxes. One mature grapefruit tree supplies more fruit than one family can use – put the excess to good use by donating to the Community Food Bank. Call 622-0525 Ext 222.

Ever wanted to tell someone what you think? If you particularly want to tell one of our elected council members try the following:

Dated Material

If you don't know who you need to talk to call 792-CITY which is staffed by a live person from 8am to 5pm weekdays except holidays.

Are you a pool owner? Pima County's Regional Wastewater Reclamation Department has approved swimming pool water discharge into the public sewer (sanitary sewer) collection system. For more information on the way in which you can do this <http://www.azdeq.gov/envIRON/water/permits/gen.html#demi> Come to the meeting and pick up a flyer detailing all the ways you should NOT be discharging pool water.

Alert! A new regional emergency alert system is now available throughout Pima County: MyAlerts.MyStateUSA.com. MyAlerts allows residents to sign up for emergency and severe weather alerts by voice, text and e-mail for a variety of scenarios, such as regional flooding, natural gas outages, chemical spills and public health crises.

Sincerely,

Your Neighborhood Association Officers

Fred Thompson, President, Zach MacDonald, 1st Vice President, Stephanie Bourn 2nd Vice President, Deborah Thompson, Secretary-Treasurer
