5. Report from TPD on Special Events Coordination of Public and Private Parties/Events including noise ordinance and red tag procedures.

Captain Perry Tarrant gave an overview of special events. He explained the City did not require or mandate the need for a permit for special events, other than a parade requiring special needs from the City.

Lieutenant Wes Dison gave a brief summary on the breakdown of officers needed at a special or civic event.

Lieutenant Jeff Coleman and Officer Scott Cuffe gave a brief summary of the Tucson City Code Statutes and Noise Ordinances, problems, and complaints. They explained how the Tucson Police Department (TPD) used a noise meter to see if the noise complaint was valid, and if necessary issued a red tag.

6. Office of the Independent Auditor

A. Outreach Report: Report of public outreach efforts by the Office of the Independent Police Auditor during the previous month.

Robert Barton, Police Auditor, stated that a presentation was given for the Citizens' Police Academy, hosted at the Police Academy facility. Another presentation was given to the Post Basic Academy for those officers that finished their basic training and post training, and were in the TPD Academy. They were given training on specific issues before being deployed to the street.

A presentation was given to youth members at the Eon "Lounge" Youth Center for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender (GLBT), to better understand the interactions with law enforcement. Assistant Police Chief Sharon Allen and Assistant Police Chief John Leavitt were at the event to provide discussion with the youth that were in attendance. Lieutenant Jeff Coleman participated in a Northern Arizona University (NAU) communications class where he spoke about the complaint process through the Office Independent Police Auditor's (IPA).

- B. Monthly Contacts: Report on TPD-related contacts by members of the public with the office of the Independent Police Auditor (IPA) during the previous month.

Robert Barton, Police Auditor, stated the office received eight inquiries, five complaints, and conducted a review of twenty-nine files that were closed by Internal Affairs. Mr. Barton performed random reviews of ten fair and thorough closed cases that were previously investigated by Internal Affairs.

10. Review of Citizen Comments submitted to Mayor and Council in reference to TPD for February 2008.

- #2 A concerned citizen wrote that there was an ongoing problem of dogs being off leashes in Santa Rosa Park. The Board asked if there was anything park officials could do to enforce the leash law in this area. It was stated that the park officials could say something to the owner, but the enforcement would have to come from a police officer or Pima Animal Care Center officer.
- #7 The Board asked if the TPD had a unit set up to deal with the mentally ill. There was a unit of trained officers called The Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) who had gone through forty hours of training, and who were equipped to handle those situations.
- #9 The caller was upset about the death of a citizen hit by a speeding police officer, and asked why the officer was allowed back to work. The board asked if the Pima County Attorney's Office had closed the investigation. The Pima County Attorney's office issued a letter of declamation indicating that they would not pursue a felony criminal charge in the matter, and a civil speeding citation was issued to the officer.
