

City of Tucson Open Data Portal

Presentation to the G.I.S. Cooperative
April 10, 2015

Project Intent

- Part of a larger Open Gov initiative
- Make the City of Tucson more efficient, transparent, and collaborative:
 - Make performance data available
 - Enable data-based decision-making
 - Reduce demand for public records requests
 - Facilitate existing reporting requirements
 - Create a culture of transparency
 - Forge more collaborative relationships through data sharing

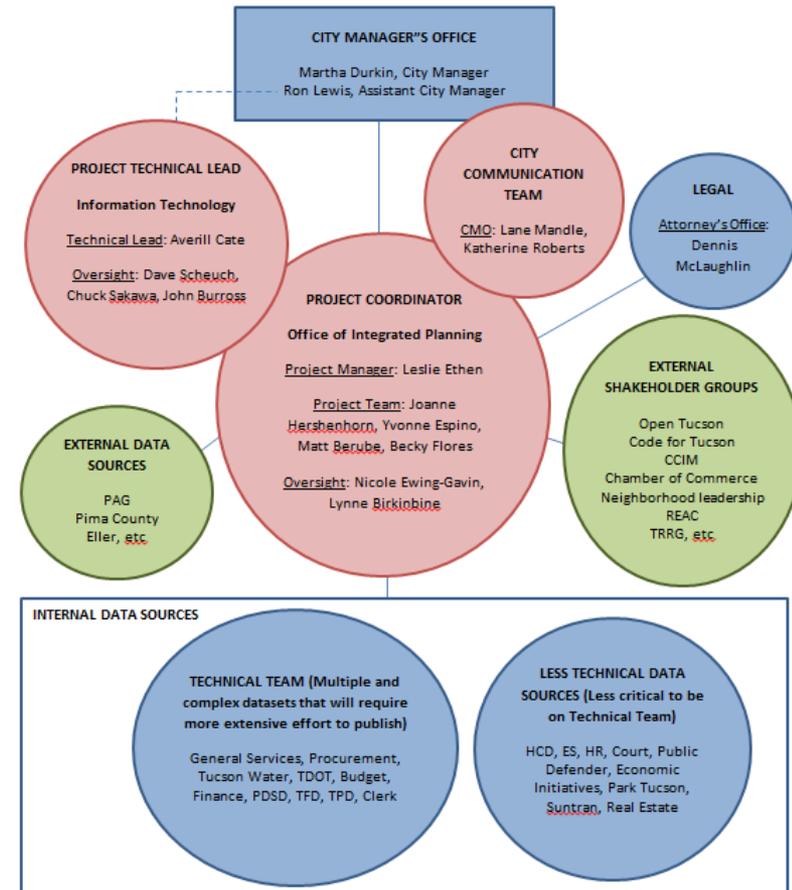

Socrata Open Data Portal

Empower citizens. Inspire collaboration. Spark innovation.
That's the power of open data by Socrata.

Project Phases

- Initiative adoption and vendor selection
 - M&C direction in Oct 2012
 - Contract executed Nov 2014
- Portal launch
 - Demos on Feb 19
 - Kick-off on March 16
 - Steps:
 - Design
 - Training
 - Data
- Soft launch
- Pilot

Open Government Portal

The screenshot shows the City of Tucson Open Government Portal. At the top left is the City of Tucson logo. To its right is a search bar with the text "Search Tucson Open Government" and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar is a navigation menu with six items: "Government", "Neighborhoods", "Business", "City Info", "Departments", and "I Want To...". The main heading is "Open Government". Below this heading are three paragraphs of text. The first paragraph states the purpose of the portal. The second paragraph lists the goals of the initiative. The third paragraph mentions a pilot program and provides contact information. Below the text are eight featured content tiles, each with a representative image and a title with a brief description.

Open Government

The City of Tucson's Open Government data portal is designed to provide residents, businesses, and community stakeholders with access to information about City services.

The goals of this initiative include increasing transparency, accountability, collaboration, and improving City efficiency and service delivery. The new portal allows users to browse datasets, export data in multiple formats, generate charts and maps using the data, and embed the data on their own websites.

The City is piloting the open data portal through the end of 2015 to give users an opportunity to provide feedback and suggest datasets to be added over time. Contact us at opendata@tucsonaz.gov.

The Open Data Portal

The screenshot shows the City of Tucson Open Data Portal. At the top left is the City of Tucson logo. To the right of the logo are links for "City of Tucson", "Data Disclaimer", "Sign Up", and "Sign In", along with social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube. A search bar labeled "Search Tucson Open Data" is positioned to the right. Below the header is a blue navigation bar with links for "Data Catalog", "Data Academy", "Resources", and "About". The main content area features a night-time cityscape background with the text "Tucson Open Data" and a commitment statement: "The City of Tucson is committed to a culture of excellence, fiscal stewardship, transparency, efficiency and effectiveness." Below this is a grid of eight blue buttons, each with a white icon and a label: City Government (building icon), Finance (piggy bank icon), Police (car icon), Fire and Rescue (flame icon), Buildings (grid icon), Roads and Streets (road icon), Environment (trees icon), and Market (carrot icon).

The screenshot shows the City of Boston Data Boston website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, CityofBoston.gov, Open Government, For Developers, Sign Up, and Sign In. The main header features the City of Boston logo and the text "City of Boston.gov Data Boston".

A prominent banner reads "Approved Building Permit Data Now Available" with a sub-headline: "A revised dataset for building permits has now been added to the portal. This covers permits approved by the Inspectional Services Division".

Below the banner are four featured dataset cards:

- Mayor's 24 Hour Hotline, Service Requests: Constituent requests for city services.
- Food Establishment Inspections: Health inspections of licensed food establishments.
- Employee Earnings Report 2014: All City of Boston employees earnings, calendar year 2014.
- COB - Executive Order - Open Data 4-7-2014: Executive order signed by Mayor Walsh regarding open data and transparency.

At the bottom, there is a search and browse section. On the left, there are filters for "View Types" (Datasets, Charts, Maps, Calendars, Filtered Views, External Datasets, Files and Documents, Forms) and "Data Owner" (Office of the Mayor, Administration & Finance, Personal & Labor Relations, Advocacy & Strategic Investment, Public Property). Below these are "Categories" (City Services, Facilities, Finance, Health, Permitting).

The main "Search & Browse Datasets and Views" section includes a search bar and a table of results. The table is sorted by "Most Relevant" and has columns for Name, Popularity, and Type.

The image displays three sequential screenshots of a data visualization tool's filter configuration interface.

Middle Screenshot: Shows the 'Filter' panel with the 'Filter' section selected. The filter rule is 'Date is between'. There are two input fields for the date range, with an 'and' operator between them. Below this, there are two more filter rules: 'Category is' and 'IncidentNum is'. A '+ Add a New Filter' button is visible. A tooltip is shown over the '+ Add a New Filter' button with the following options: 'Show suggested values', 'Select one', 'Select many' (checked), 'Match any condition', and 'Match all conditions'.

Right Screenshot: Shows the 'Filter' panel with the 'Sort & Roll-Up' section selected. The text reads: 'You can group rows together and summarize data with a roll-up; and sort one or more columns'. There is a checkbox for 'Roll-Ups & Drill-Downs' (unchecked) and a checked checkbox for 'Sort'. Below 'Sort', there are three columns being sorted: 'Date', 'Time', and 'No column selected'. Each column has a 'Direction' dropdown set to 'Descending'. There is an 'Add Column' button and 'Apply' and 'Cancel' buttons at the bottom.

Open Budget

Welcome to the City of Boston's Open Budget application!

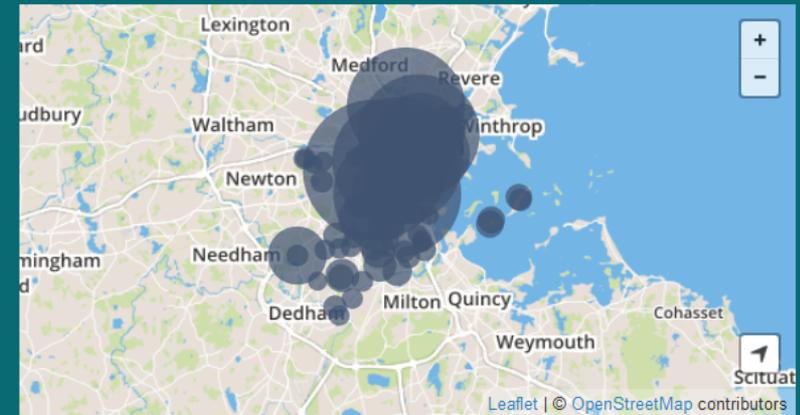

The Open Budget web application provides the public with a user-friendly, interactive platform to explore and better understand where city dollars are being allocated. The site displays funding for both the operating and capital budgets.

Please Note: We are currently displaying the FY16 recommended budget.

For more detailed information on either the operating or capital budget, please visit the About page by clicking "Read More" below.
