Citizen Police Advisory Review Board Seeks Additional Advisory Members

The Citizen Police Advisory Board (CPARB) is seeking applications to fill four advisory, non-voting positions for a period not to exceed two years. Formed by the Mayor and City Council in March 1997, CPARB helps promote a citizen-police partnership, and reviews and comments on police investigation of citizen complaints.

Advisory members must meet the following criteria:

- Must be a resident of the City of Tucson
- Must never have been convicted of a felony
- Must not currently be a peace officer
- Must attend monthly meetings of CPARB
- Must participate in Board activities including appropriate training

Persons interested in becoming an advisory member to CPARB should submit a letter of interest (not to exceed three pages) with the following information:

- Complete name, address and telephone number
- Brief description of prior and current community involvement
- A brief summary as to what the applicant hopes to accomplish by working with CPARB.

Letters of interest should be mailed to:
City Clerk's Office (CPARB)
