CITY OF TUCSON CHARTER REVIEW COMMITTEE SEEKING INPUT

The Charter Review Committee has been meeting to make recommendations regarding possible changes to the City of Tucson Charter.

The Committee is seeking input and recommendations from the citizens of Tucson regarding these changes. There are several ways to provide comments to the Committee:

- Email to: cityclerk@tucsonaz.gov or
- Mail to: City Clerk's Office, P.O. Box 27210, Tucson, AZ 85726 or
- Attend the Charter Review Committee meeting and speak during Call to the Audience

The next meeting of the Charter Review Committee is:

March 21, 2016
Tucson City Hall, 1st Floor Meeting Room
255 W. Alameda Street
4:30 p.m.

The Charter Review Committee is comprised of 15 members who are registered voters of the City of Tucson. Their task is to review and make recommendations regarding possible amendments to the Tucson Charter. The Mayor and Council directed that the review should include, but is not limited to, those sections of the Charter relating to the method and manner of the nomination and election of the mayor and council members; and to those sections of the Charter relating to the City's taxing authority and financial flexibility.

Further information including meeting agendas and minutes is available at <https://www.tucsonaz.gov/clerks/boards?board=120>.

For any questions regarding this information, please call 791-4213.
