CITY RECOGNIZED FOR EXCELLENCE IN BUDGETING

The City of Tucson recently received the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award from the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA). The award reflects the commitment of the governing body and staff to meet the highest principles of governmental budgeting.

In order to receive the budget award, the City had to satisfy nationally recognized guidelines for effective budget presentation. Budget documents must be rated “proficient” in four categories and meet 14 different criteria within those categories.

“This recognition confirms the hard work of the City’s Business Services department and its commitment to deliver clear, transparent financial reporting to the citizens of Tucson,” said Joyce Garland, chief financial officer/assistant city manager for the City of Tucson.

The GFOA is a nonprofit professional association serving approximately 19,000 government finance professionals.
