CITY OF TUCSON WORKSHOPS LICENSE AND TRANSACTION PRIVILEGE TAX REPORTING

 UPDATE – DECEMBER 16, 2014 *****

The State of Arizona Department of Revenue will provide an additional contracting class on Dec., 18, from 1:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m., at the Eckstrom-Columbus Library, 4350 E. 22nd Street, to provide an explanation of the statutory prime contracting changes effective Jan. 1, 2015 and a discussion of licensing and filing requirements for contractors from the Arizona Department of Revenue. Attendees this will learn how the transaction privilege tax will apply to businesses in the future. Also, learn about the Arizona transaction privilege tax renewal process that is currently taking place. Seating is limited so please register at 791-4681 or email TAXPAYER-EDUCATION@tucsonaz.gov for reservations and further information

Learn your rights and responsibilities for Transaction Privilege (Sales) Taxation by attending a Tax and License Workshop sponsored by the City of Tucson Finance Department.

Questions will be answered and written materials will be available. Samples of sales tax records, worksheets, and monthly returns will be explained. Sample returns can be completed. It is recommended that you bring a calculator and a pencil.

The workshops are free and open to the public. Email to the following address: Taxpayer-Education@tucsonaz.gov or call (520) 791-4681 for reservations or more information about either of the City of Tucson workshops. When you make your reservation, please specify the activities and subjects that you are interested in reviewing.
