

Diversity Team's Living Library @ Tucson Meet Yourself

A Living Library is an event where human beings are living /human Books of knowledge, willing to share their expertise and engage in dialogue about their life's experiences with Readers, folks like you and I, who stop by the "library event" to literally "checkout" or "borrow" a Book for 15 minutes with the possibility of renewal. It's a Library, but, YOU GET TO TALK!!!

DATE & LOCATION

Friday, October 9, 2009
Saturday, October 10, 2009

In the Global Village on the Jácome Plaza of the Joel Valdez Main Library
101 N. Stone Avenue (downtown Tucson)

TIME

11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

A Sneak Peek at a few Book titles:

- Now, Just Exactly Where Is The Republic Of Burundi? • Ostracized At Eight
• Coming To America? • What's Under That...? • Homeless! - How Did That Happen?
• Strange Things About The U.S. • Unlocking The Mystery Of ... • You Don't Look...

STOP BY AND "CHECK OUT" A BOOK

Contact Leondra Price @ (520) 837- 4010

LIVING-library.org
Understanding Diversity