

Cribbage

---

Entry Regulations:

1. Men and women compete together.
2. All ages compete together.
3. Personal cribbage boards are welcome.

Format:

The cards shall be cut at the beginning of each game. Low card deals. Both players must cut the deck for deal. Ace is low.

The cards should be offered for a cut before a deal is started. If not, there is no penalty.

No Player shall examine the bottom card before deal is started. If not, there is no penalty.

A misdeal shall be declared if a card becomes exposed during the course of the deal. There is no penalty involved.

The object is to peg 120 holes plus one to win the game.

Player with crib counts last after opponent's hand has been counted.

Player that pegs 121 points first wins the game and no further pegging can be done by opponent.

Points missed by one player cannot be taken by opponent.

Winner of game gets 121 points and opponent only gets holes he/she has actually pegged.

In the event that points are pegged in excess of the proper count of the hand, the peg must be returned to the proper count before play is resumed.

No ruling on pegging the wrong way. Each player must agree on correcting any mistakes made. Watch your pegging!

The Jack, when cut, counts as two points at any time, except when cutting for deal. A player may go out on the Jack cut and the pegging stops immediately.

Any individual player wishing to make a protest, will be required to do so before the next hand is dealt.

Score sheets must be cross-checked and initialed by the opposing players at each table after each game is played. Scores can be turned in at the end of the session.

No kibitzing or giving advice while standing or watching a player who is playing an authorized game.

Medals will be given for total points.
