ARMORY PARK CENTER REOPENS

The City of Tucson's Armory Park Center cooling issue has been resolved and the facility has returned to normal operating hours today, Wednesday, Aug.17, 2016. Armory Park Center is a vital center for actively aging adults that enhances the quality of life for people over the age of 50 years by providing socialization, recreation, education, information, nutrition, social services, and support.

Get the Senior Activity Card annual membership for $25/city resident, $30/non-city resident. An assortment of classes and activities are scheduled throughout the week in health and fitness, education, games, dance, and other hobbies. The center is also one of the Senior Nutrition and Socialization Program sites. Find information on this program and other amenities offered at Armory Park Center at www.tucsonaz.gov/parks/recreation-centers.
