TUCSON PARKS AND RECREATION COMMISSION AWARDS PRESENTATION

The 2019 Tucson Parks and Recreation Commission Awards will be presented by Mayor Jonathan Rothschild on Tuesday, Sept. 17, at the Mayor and Council meeting, beginning at 5:30 p.m. at 255 W. Alameda St.

There are five award recipients this year. Below is a list of the individuals who will receive an award, including a brief description of their accomplishments.

Jonathan Rothschild, City of Tucson Mayor

In appreciation of all the accomplishments during his leadership to the City and gratitude for the significant improvements made to benefit Tucson residents which have provided an essential quality of life. In gratitude for the advocacy, active role, and leadership in many community projects which have supported a healthier Tucson.

Lucy Porter, Tucson Parks and Recreation Volunteer

In recognition of the dedication and volunteerism to many community improvements and countless efforts regarding the reopening of the Ormsby Neighborhood Center.

Jeremy Herr, Recreation Program Coordinator at Tucson Parks and Recreation

In appreciation for the continued dedication to the Tucson Parks and Recreation department with exemplary efforts in creativity, outstanding service, and valuable contributions to all the projects and events in which he is involved.

Miguel Garcia, Recreation Assistant at Tucson Parks and Recreation

In appreciation for excellent service to the community and taking dedicated ownership at the Oury Recreation Center, as well as continued mentorship to staff, creating trust in the community and program participants.

Andi Rodriguez-Garcia, Recreation Assistant at Tucson Parks and Recreation

In appreciation for the excellent creativity and dedication at various center events, programs, and committees.
