FREE HEALTH FAIR AT EL RIO NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER

The University of Arizona College of Pharmacy and Tucson Parks and Recreation will host their annual Health Fair at El Rio Neighborhood Center. This health fair will focus on providing free health services and health information to members of the Tucson community by offering screenings for osteoporosis, diabetes, blood pressure, cholesterol, hearing, breathing, vision, and medication reviews. There also will be activities for children, including a jumping castle, face painting and TMC will be giving away booster seats. Moreover, there will be raffle prizes and a yoga class for adults. This event is free and open to the public. Spanish translators will be available.
