UA COLLEGE OF PHARMACY STUDENTS TEAM UP WITH EL RIO NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER FOR FREE HEALTH FAIR

The University of Arizona College of Pharmacy and Tucson Parks and Recreation are pleased to host their annual free Health and Safety Fair at El Rio Neighborhood Center. This health fair will focus on providing free health services and health information to members of the Tucson community by offering screenings for asthma, diabetes, blood pressure, cholesterol, hearing, vision, medication reviews and confidential Hepatitis C and HIV. ACCESS Arizona Smiles will be there with their dental mobile to provide dental exams for children. There will also be activities for children including bike helmet fitting, obstacle course, jumping castle and face painting. Moreover, there will be a vendor expo, raffle prizes, guest speakers, food trucks and more! This event is free and open to the public. Spanish translators will be available.

What: Health and Safety Fair

When: Saturday, September 20, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Where: El Rio Neighborhood Center, 1390 W. Speedway Blvd.

Primary Sponsors: The University of Arizona College of Pharmacy and Tucson Parks and Recreation
