FREE FAMILY FESTIVAL IN THE PARK SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17TH

Tucson Parks and Recreation Department and Dan Felix Memorial Fund present the 7th Annual Family Festival in the Park. This free annual community-wide event is about having family fun and a terrific opportunity for Tucson Parks and Recreation to showcase programs and activities offered to the community. The event is expected to attract more than 9,000 Tucsonans. Family activities include stage entertainment, carnival games, inflatable's, crafts, golf clinic, tennis games, and demonstrations of pottery, and drawing offered by the leisure class unit. The Reid Park Zoo will have free admission as well as the Edith Ball Adaptive Recreation Center hosting an afternoon of free swimming from Noon-4 p.m. and Tucson City Golf will offer a free 10-minute golf instruction at the Randolph Driving Range adjacent to the park on Alvernon Way from 10 a.m.-noon. Come to our Parks and Recreation information booth to catch the highlights the various Parks and Recreation units offering services and programs to the community. Entertainment will be presented throughout the day and a variety of foods will be available for purchase through local vendors.
