HOLIDAY ARTS AND CRAFTS FAIR NOV. 28-29 AT REID PARK

Come get a jump on your holiday shopping. The Tucson Parks and Recreation Department presents the annual Holiday Arts & Crafts Fair, Nov. 28-29, in Reid Park, 22nd Street and Country Club Road. It will be located west of the DeMeester Outdoor Performance Center daily from 9 a.m.- 4 p.m. This free event will draw in more than 100 vendors from all over the Southwest, ranging from artists, crafters, photographers, painters, potters, jewelers, and more.

The Thanksgiving weekend fair has become a tradition for many holiday shoppers for more than 30 years. Stroll through the park and visit artists with their colorful fused glass and mosaics, wind chimes, walking sticks, birdhouses, and teacup bird feeders. Discover an artist's original work in painting, photography, clay, wood, and fiber. If you are looking for something cozy, this is the place for quilts, knit scarves, and fragrant handcrafted soaps and lotions. Finish off your holiday shopping list with the unique hand painted sunglasses, handcrafted pens, stuffed toys and puppets, pet clothes, accessories, gourmet treats, and so much more. While enjoying the fair, be sure to stop for food and refreshments from local vendors.

Visitors are encouraged to use the Concert Place entrance from Country Club Road for ample free parking. For more information call 791-4877.
