BRONZE KENNEDY BUST STOLEN FROM PRESIDIO PLAZA TO BE REINSTALLED FRIDAY, JUNE 27

UPDATE – June 26, 2014**

The John F. Kennedy bust that was recovered in late March has been repaired and will be reinstalled tomorrow morning, Friday, June 27 between 8 a.m. and 9 a.m. in the Presidio Plaza located at 160 W. Alameda Street.

Sierra Davenport April 1, 2014

Over the weekend, the bronze bust of John F. Kennedy was stolen off its pedestal base from Presidio Plaza. It was knocked entirely off its memorial base. The bronze bust, entitled In Memoriam John F. Kennedy was erected in 1964, one year after the President's assassination.

A police report has been made and area metal shops have been informed. Anyone with information on the theft is urged to call 88-CRIME.
