NEW PLAYGROUND INSTALLED AT REID PARK

Tucson Mayor Jonathan Rothschild, Ward 6 Council Member Steve Kozachik, and Tucson Parks and Recreation invite you to celebrate the addition of two new ADA-accessible playgrounds with shade at Reid Park. Some playground components include a rope climber, motion cruiser, musical instruments, and swings.

Included in the project was a new concrete path between the ramadas, drinking fountain and pet fountain, new benches, and grills. The area also received a new irrigation system, new turf areas with trees and shrubs, and perimeter fencing along part of the small playground. Funding for this project came from City of Tucson impact fees.
