

9-461.02. Planning commission; creation; limitations

If a municipal planning commission is created, the organization, number of members, the terms of office and the method of appointment and removal shall be as provided by local ordinance, except that each municipal planning commission shall have at least five members.