OARP STUDIO

Art Is Everywhere

- in parks
- along streets
- as buildings
- on walls
- as stories

“Studio” Set Up

- Ward III arranged “studio” space at La Siesta
- “Front Studio” - large panels of photographs illustrating that “art” is everywhere in Oracle area
- Photographs to be keyed to map
- “Back Studio” - storytelling “booth” in which guests will be invited to share stories from Oracle area.
- Stories to be documented

Photographs & Storytellers

- Have a long list of outdoor pieces of “art” - e.g., neon signs, historic architecture, playground “sculpture,” murals, gateways
- If you have a favorite piece of outdoor “art,” please let staff know before the evening is over
- Looking forward to Steering Committee members stopping by to tell a story, AND encouraging two friends to visit the “studio” on Sat., Nov. 8th, or Sun., Nov. 9th, Noon - 5 p.m.

Staffing

- Ward III staff
- City Urban Planning and Design staff
- Any available Steering Committee members
- UA Blue Chip Program students

When the “Studio” Ends, What’s Next?

- Panels will be available for display in other places in Oracle area
- Stories will be transformed into banners, or posters, or a book, or some other format by UA Blue Chip Program students
