ATTEMPT TO IDENTIFY BANK ROBBERY SUSPECT 2480 NORTH SWAN ROAD - WELLS FARGO BANK

UPDATE - MAY 1, 2014**

The Tucson Police Department's Robbery Unit has made two arrests in connection with the March 28th Bank Robbery that occurred at the Wells Fargo Bank, located inside of the Fry's grocery store at 2480 North Swan Avenue.

On April 29, 2014, detectives received information regarding the identity and whereabouts of the male seen entering the bank wearing the red and white striped shirt. He was located, detained, and identified as 26 year old Francisco Soto. Mr. Soto admitted to his involvement in the bank robbery. Detectives were able to retrieve further information regarding the identity of the driver as well. The next day on April 30, detectives were able to locate and arrest 37 year old Jason Guerrero, who also admitted involvement in the bank robbery.

Both Mr. Soto and Mr. Guerrero were charged with 1 count of Aggravated Robbery and booked into the Pima County Jail.

NEWS RELEASE

Roberto A. Villaseñor
Chief of Police

On March 28, 2014, just before 7:00 p.m., officers from Operations Division Midtown responded to the report of a bank robbery that was occurring at 2480 North Swan Road. The Wells Fargo Bank that they were responding to is inside of the Fry's Grocery Store. Upon arrival officers discovered that the suspect had already left the bank westbound on foot. Officers searched the area but the suspect was not located.

Detectives from the Tucson Police Department's Robbery Unit responded to assist with the investigation. Detectives learned that an unknown male suspect approached the bank teller and presented a note demanding money. The suspect was given an undisclosed amount of money before fleeing on foot.

The suspect was described as a Hispanic male in his 20's. He is approximately 5'9" to 6'0", 150-160 pounds, with dark hair and brown eyes. He was last seen wearing a University of Arizona baseball cap, red and white striped shirt, blue jeans, a grey and black backpack and gold framed glasses.

Surveillance images from the bank are included below. Anyone with information about the suspect's identity or whereabouts is urged to call 911 or 88-crime.
