CALEA RE-ACCREDITATION

The Tucson Police Department is proud to announce that the agency's CALEA (The Commission on Accreditation of Law Enforcement Agencies) re-accreditation efforts this year were once again successful. Over the weekend, members of the Tucson Police Department traveled to the CALEA Conference held in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. On November 16th, Chief Villaseñor met with the Commissioners, who reviewed the report and findings of the CALEA's assessment team's recent visit to the Department in August of 2013. The Commissioners voted unanimously to grant re-accreditation to the Tucson Police Department. This is the fourth re-accreditation and fifth consecutive time overall that the Tucson Police Department has met or exceeded many of the national standards in law enforcement as set forth by CALEA. The Tucson Police Department is the largest nationally accredited law enforcement agency in the State of Arizona.
