FATAL PEDESTRIAN/TRAIN COLLISION EAST OF SOUTH RITA ROAD & EAST OLD VAIL ROAD

On July 2, 2016 officers from Operations Division East responded to the railroad tracks east of South Rita Road and East Old Vail Road reference a report of a pedestrian struck by a train. Members from the Tucson Fire Department and Union Pacific Police Department were also dispatched. Shortly after arrival, the pedestrian was pronounced deceased on scene.

Traffic investigators from the Tucson Police Department responded to continue the investigation. They were able to determine that the pedestrian was jogging westbound on and off the tracks when he was struck from behind by a westbound train.

The pedestrian has been identified as 29-year-old Kyle Calloway. Next of kin has been notified.

The collision happened on the railroad tracks east of the intersection. The numbers below do not include this collision, due to the fact that the collision did not take place on or at a roadway.
