HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION 1000 BLOCK OF EAST 28TH STREET

The Tucson Police Department is currently investigating a homicide that occurred yesterday on Tucson's South Side.

On December 30, 2018, just before 12:30 p.m., officers from Operations Division South were dispatched to a welfare check at a residence in the 1000 block of East 28th Street. The caller advised police that she was supposed to meet her boyfriend for lunch at his house. When she arrived, there was no answer at the door and blood was located on the ground outside of the home. Officers immediately forced entry, where they located the boyfriend deceased with obvious signs of trauma.

Detectives with the Tucson Police Homicide Unit responded to continue the investigation. They are still in the early stages of their investigation so details are limited. At this time, there are no suspects in custody. Detectives are currently following up on leads in the case, but are asking anyone with information to please call 88-CRIME. As always, you can remain anonymous.

The victim was identified as 38-year-old Jeremiah Stoneberg. Next of kin has been notified.
