HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION 6200 BLOCK OF EAST PIMA STREET

On June 12, 2022, at approximately 12:30 a.m., Officers from Operations Division East responded to an apartment complex located in the 6200 block of E. Pima St. for a report of a shooting. Officers arrived on the scene and located an adult male victim lying on the sidewalk with obvious signs of gunshot trauma. Officers rendered aid using their Individual First Aid Kits (IFAK) until Tucson Fire arrived. The victim was transported to St. Joseph's hospital, where he was pronounced deceased shortly after arriving. He has been identified as 37-year-old Carl Wynegar.

Officers contacted two adult males who advised they were involved in the shooting and had called 911. Both males were detained and cooperated with the investigation. Homicide Detectives were contacted and responded to continue the investigation. Detectives learned that Mr. Wynegar and the two other males were involved in a verbal altercation. All three subjects lived in the complex and were armed. The altercation escalated, and shots were fired, and Mr. Wynegar was struck.

This is an ongoing investigation. No arrests have been made at this time. Detectives will present their findings to the Pima County Attorney's Office for further review. Additional details will be released when they become available.

Homicides Year to Date:

2021 - 35 2022 – 36
