Sergeant Pete Dugan – July 4, 2016

The Tucson Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating 69-year-old Michael Kemmerer.

Mr. Kemmerer walked away from his care facility this morning at approximately 7:45 a.m. and was last seen in the area of North Campbell Avenue and E. Fort Lowell Road. Mr. Kemmerer functions at a much younger mental capacity and needs prescription medication for a serious medical condition. His care providers told police that he did not take his medications with him.

Mr. Kemmerer is described as a Caucasian male, approximately 5'8, 130 to 150 pounds with salt and pepper colored hair that he combs straight back. It is not clear what he was wearing when he left, but his shoes are possibly a lime green color. He does not have a vehicle, cell phone, bus pass or any money with him.
