MISSING VULNERABLE ADULT ANNETTE R. RALLY

The Tucson Police Department seeks public assistance in locating a missing, vulnerable adult named Annette R. Rally. Ms. Rally is a 51-year old Caucasian female, 5'07" tall, and 130 pounds with brown eyes and long gray hair. She is wheelchair bound. She was diagnosed with severe mental illness.

Police were initially notified that she was missing on the early morning of December 22, 2011. Ms. Rally lived at a residence in the 5200 Block of East Bellevue. She was last seen at the residence at approximately 1:30 a.m. on December 22, 2011.

Ms. Rally is known to frequent the area of East Speedway Boulevard and North Craycroft Road. Various police personnel have checked the area extensively, but attempts to locate Ms. Rally have been unsuccessful. There is increased cause for concern due to the very cold evening temperatures that Tucson has been experiencing as well as the fact that Ms. Rally has not taken her medication in nearly a week. She is considered a danger to herself.

Anyone with information about Ms. Rally's whereabouts is urged to call 911 as soon as possible so that her medical needs can be addressed. A photograph of Ms. Rally is included below.
