MISSING VULNERABLE ADULT CARL A. STULTZ

UPDATE – JUNE 5, 2012**

Mr. Stultz was located and determined to not be in need of further assistance. Thanks to those who have been searching for him since his initial disappearance on April 30, 2012.

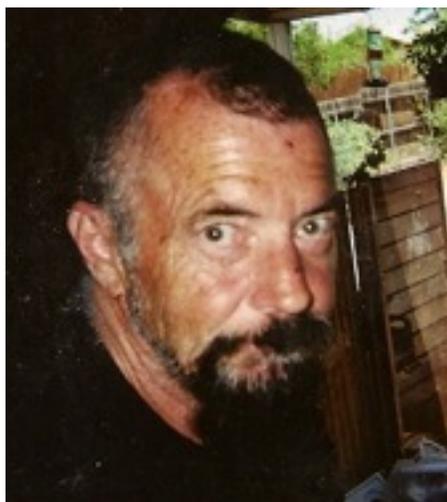

Sergeant Maria Hawke – June 5, 2012

The Tucson Police Departments seeks assistance with locating a missing vulnerable adult, Carl A. Stultz. Mr Stultz was last seen at his residence in the 1700 Block of West Higgins Lane on April 30, 2012. He has various medical issues/disabilities that are cause for concern. He is also known to be very trusting and is easily manipulated by others. As such, there is significant concern that someone could take advantage of him. Mr. Stultz left his residence after becoming upset and has not been seen or heard from since. He is described as a Caucasian male, 64-years old, 5'04" tall, weighing 140 pounds, with dyed brown or gray hair, and brown eyes. He is familiar with and will use public transport, making it quite possible that he could wander to all areas of Tucson. Anyone having information about Mr. Stultz' whereabouts is urged to call 911 or 88-Crime so that the Tucson Police Department can facilitate getting him the medical assistance that he needs.
