The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the Momentum Magazine website. The address bar shows the URL <http://momentummag.com/videos/intersection-design-the-dutch-way/>. The page features the Momentum Magazine logo with the tagline "(smart living by bike)". A navigation menu includes links for Magazine, Features, Blogs, Arts & Culture, Families, Gear, BikeStyle, Videos, and Contests. The main article is titled "Intersection Design - The Dutch Way" and is dated August 3, 2012. It includes a video player with the title "Junction design the Dutch - cycle friendly - way" and a play button. Below the video, there is a text block asking if the cycling-friendly Dutch model for intersection design can apply to North American streets. To the right of the article is a sidebar with a "Shop Now" section for the State Bicycle Company, featuring a bicycle and the text "Let nothing take that away. KRYPTONITE". At the bottom of the sidebar, there is a "BUY TICKETS TODAY" banner with a red helmet icon. The browser's status bar at the bottom indicates "Internet | Protected Mode: Off" and a zoom level of 105%.
