It's Time to Talk: Inclusion and Equality in Tucson

A Night of Sharing, Listening, and Learning

Contact: Ward 6 Council Office, (520) 791-4601

On Monday, October 20th, leaders in government, business, education, and members of the community at large will come together to discuss what can unite and strengthen Tucson in the face of potential divisions within our community.

The strength of our future depends on our ability to understand the realities of racism, build new skills around inclusion and equity, understand the opportunities already available in our community, and commit ourselves to acting together.

Please join us and take part in this open conversation about diversity, inclusion, and equality.
