Victims of Sex Trafficking Treated as Criminals in Arizona

As a minor, Beth Jacobs was trafficked and forced into a life of prostitution. Now, over 30 years later, the State of Arizona has no way for those convictions to be removed from her record.

State Representative Victoria Steele and Tucson City Council Member Steve Kozachik are joining forces to get that changed.

Representative Steele

Council Member Kozachik

Please join us at 1pm on Friday, October 24th at the Ward 6 Council Office to hear Beth's story and the plans being laid to introduce legislation in the upcoming State Legislative term to provide relief for trafficking victims.
