“FANCY PANTS”

Dear Sir/Madam

Fancy Pants is an undergarment clothing drive I have created for the children of Sojourner Center, a domestic violence shelter for women and children. Anyone that cares for children is invited to participate. I am hoping to provide packages of socks and underwear for children of all ages by requesting that each person I contact reach out to people in their communities requesting NEW undergarment donations. The donations are wonderful, but something else that's really important is to spread awareness of the issue of domestic violence and the impact all around it. Many of these children arrive at the center with only the clothes on their back. Some of them, the ones that arrive via the police department or hospital, may arrive without even those (confiscated as evidence). I really want the children and families that benefit from this project to feel a sense of “Community, Peace, and Pride”. I remember the pride I felt when I got my first pair of Aquaman Underoos. I really want these children to experience that feeling. Having spent time in one of these facilities as a kid, this project really hits home. I appreciate any effort you put out.
