2 IMPORTANT MESSAGE

This area is for information about upcoming projects, water reliability, customer incentives and programs, events, etc.

3

3 ACCOUNT ACTIVITY

Your account balance may reflect the total for up to three services: Tucson Water, Environmental Services (garbage and recycling pickup within city limits), and Pima County (sewer/wastewater fees, if applicable). See page two of your statement for more information.

4

4 CONSERVE TO ENHANCE PROGRAM

You can make a voluntary tax-deductible donation to support enhancement of riparian areas in the utility's service area and to purchase and preserve undeveloped land.

5 CITY ITEMIZED ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICE CHARGES

A Groundwater Protection Fee is assessed to all Tucson Water customers to administer, design, construct, operate and maintain groundwater remediation and landfill monitoring/compliance systems. This fee is based on water meter size. The Garbage Container Fee applies to weekly garbage and recycling collection service (within city limits) and is based on container size.

6 PIMA COUNTY ITEMIZED SEWER CHARGES

The Service Fee covers costs associated with the use and maintenance of the public sanitary sewer system, including costs associated with administrative requirements of a wastewater utility. The Sewer Residential Charge is for processing sewage that is generated on your property.

7 CITY ITEMIZED WATER VOLUME CHARGES

The Monthly Service Charge includes the cost to read your water meter, process your statement, maintain water meters, and provide for public fire protection. The CAP (Central Arizona Project) charge is levied on all potable water customers. Revenues are used to pay charges assessed by the Central Arizona Water Conservation District (a State agency) for the City's allocation of Central Arizona Project water. The Conservation fee provides funding dedicated to helping customers save water indoors and outdoors. It allows Tucson Water to offer residential and commercial rebate and incentive programs.

8 MISCELLANEOUS CHARGES

Miscellaneous charges include applicable city and state sales taxes, new water meter installation fees, delinquent fees, water service turn-on charges, backflow prevention permit costs, plan reviews and revisions, and other items applicable to water service.
